A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

Inspiration: the process of being mentally stimulated to do or feel something, especially to do something creative.

It comes from the Latin inspiratus (the past participle of inspirare, “to breathe into, inspire”). It also means, “to breathe upon, or blow upon.”

This word comes from the idea that God breathed life into His creation, “then the LORD God formed the man out of the dust of the ground and blew into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living being.” (Gen. 2:7)

I’m very curious about words, their meaning and origin and how we come to use them.

To be inspired is to be enlightened and to be motivated to do something that involves your whole being. I am, for example, inspired on a daily basis as I am blessed to have been given the gift of my priesthood and to live my life according to what God sees fit for me to follow.

Joseph Campbell’s memorable quote states: “We must let go of the life we have planned, so as to accept the one that is waiting for us.” These are particularly strong and inspirational words for me to hear and to follow. As God, in his infinite wisdom and the works of the Holy Spirit have guided me to where I am now. To listen deeply, interiorly and spiritually is what I encourage you all to do during this time of Lent. To stop for a moment and listen, really listen, to God’s calling and for you to act upon that call. Our lives are not simple, and are never meant to be, but as God’s creation, we are meant to seek him out and to allow that spirit to enter into all of us. God bless.

GRIEVING MINISTRY

Whether the death was sudden or tragic, or one with warning and preparation, the reality of death leaves most of us in a state of shock, confusion, and sadness.
Grieving people need time and space to honor their grief and figure out how to keep on living when a loved one is gone.

Our Grieving Ministry provides spiritual, emotional and practical support to people who are grieving the loss of a loved one.

Meet us in the library February 17th at 11 am.

Get the bulletin every week in your email before mass! Send a request

WHAT IS A QR CODE?

Have you asked yourself what those strange black and white blocks of black and white are?

You may have seen them in restaurants, advertising, packaging or even in the church bulletin. It's called a QR code, which is an acronym for "Quick Response".

It's similar to a barcode where you don't need barcode reading software, but just the camera on any smartphone. Open up your camera on your smartphone as if you are going to take a photo and it will take you to a website url, contact details or other digital data stored on the code.
