A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

This is week three of my transition into this wonderful parish and I am so grateful to many of you who have extended your prayers and well meaning to me. As some may know it is a difficult thing to pack up one's belongings and leave a place that you called home for nearly five years and move to a totally new place. It is especially difficult to move into a different work environment and getting accustomed to a different routine that has been long established. Usually a good pastor will stand back and observe how things are handled in both the office and the liturgical life of a parish. Every parish is very different from one to the other; even, in some cases, how the liturgy is celebrated. Every pastor has their way of doing things and sometimes that which the pastor established is ingrained into the community so much so that the parishioners will say, "that's the way it's done". The bishop, when assigning a new pastor to a parish, always suggest to wait at least six months before making any changes, if needed. And so far that is what I am doing, observing and taking note.

One of the first things I am planning for the Fall is 1) starting Scripture studies and a series of lectures, the first of which will be based on Thomas Merton and his writing. If you're not familiar with Thomas Merton you soon will be.

I also want to acknowledge Fr. Joseph and his contributions he's made here and the love and fondness you have for him. I have only been here a very short time and I've come to like him very much. He is a caring and loving man whom I have come to respect and admire him. I hope and pray for his country and his brothers and sisters who are suffering in that great nation. As I said to Fr. Joseph he can stay as long as he needs until his homeland is open and this terrible pandemic has subsided in India and the rest of the world.

I will keep this Word from the Pastor short, but will be bringing you more information in the coming days and weeks. I am excited about this parish and the many events that are coming up. I also hope and desire you let me know what events, programs and formation materials you would like to see happening here at St. Anne's. May God bless you.

Fr. Leonard Marrujo

God our Father,
In your wisdom and love, you made all things. Bless these men, that they may be strengthened as Christian fathers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor them always with a spirit of profound respect.
Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen
