A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

I hope you all had a wonderful Thanksgiving Day.

I Have Great News! My nephew and his wife gave birth to their second child this past week. What a great gift my family received and for this we are eternally grateful to God almighty. Thanksgiving is a time for families and close friends to come together and rejoice and give thanks to God and the abundance we have received from the earth. I am especially grateful to the farmers, the migrant workers who toil each day, the truckers who drive miles under good and bad weather conditions and to those who stock our grocery shelves everyday while you and I sleep comfortably at night. Let us give thanks to these unsung men and women and the hard and difficult work they perform each day and night.

As a priest, I am eternally grateful to bishop Michael Barber for placing me with you and to share another holiday with you and your family. It is a grace for me to enjoy your company, knowing that I am making a difference in your life and that you are enriching my life in the same way.

The first day of Advent is the first day of a new Liturgical (or church) calendar and begins a four-week period of preparation in anticipation of the nativity of our Lord. Today we celebrate the First Sunday of Advent, and so we begin to prepare ourselves to receive the Christ child, and to observe salvation history that is to come during the season of Lent. This is also a good time, in my opinion, to reflect on this past year and to make plans for the coming new year.

I often spend my days writing, reading, and learning something new to share with you. But what is most important to me is the time I spend meditating and praying on God's Word and my personal devotion to Mary. As your spiritual leader and shepherd of this community, I encourage you to deepen your faith from now until Christmas by praying more than your regular routine, reading spiritual books that pertain to the season and giving more of yourselves so that others may benefit from your generosity and love. It is through the spirit of giving that we make a difference to others, while at the same time pleasing God.

As Christ himself reminds us when seeing the person on the street not as a stranger, but as our neighbor, and to see the face of Christ in each person we meet.

Advent Season is a very special time of year that sometimes gets lost in the bright lights of the Christmas season it precedes. Let us remember that this time of year is not just a time to rejoice but it is a time to reflect, prepare and to reconcile ourselves for the coming of the Lord. Amen.

Men's Ministry in the Library 2nd & 4th Tuesdays @ 10am

How did the term "Christian" become so contentious?

Investigate the original Good News of Jesus' life, death, and Resurrection as first preached and recorded by the 4 Gospel writers.

The Men's Ministry encourages the men of St. Anne's parish to begin a shared study of St. Luke's Gospel on Tuesday November 22 at 10 AM in the parish library.

We meet every second and fourth Tuesday of the month to share our insights and interests on the power of Jesus presence in our lives.

Love to have you join us.
